Fellowship Day: Message.
2013

ISGF or Friendship at anytime and anywhere.

Dear friends,

For 60 years now, beyond the borders, the cultural and creed differences, or even the language barriers, the International Scout and Guide Fellowship has been bringing people together and glorifying the treasure of Humanity: Friendship.

What sentiment may be nobler than the one which by the gaze of sight and mind intensify tolerance, self-denial and the service-minded without any expectation in return!

This next 25th October 2013 will be a unique day. Let's make this day an outstanding one, full of empathy.

Meet us at the various celebration venues organized to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the ISGF which will take place in the different regions or via Skype and crown this day with a worldwide chain of greetings and exchanges.

Friendship is also not to forget the others.

I invite all of you to meet with the most people you can, men, women, the elderly... Also, some of the ISGF members will not be able to participate, then we would appreciate if you would send photos, reports to be published on the ISGF Website in order to be shared with all the members.

Mrs Mida Rodrigues, Chairman of the ISGF World Committee, will send her speech presented during the commemorative ceremony in Geneva to all of you.

Another way to share this moment.

We look forward to seeing you to celebrate the ISGF Jubilee and also our Friendship.

See you soon.

With my best regards.

Cécile Bellet
Secretary General
ISGF World Bureau.
