“Welcome”

to the ‘NEWLOOK’ ASA

Following the approval of our revised Constitution at the AGM on Saturday 6th May ASA now consists of three Component Organisations:

The B-P Scout Guild (Scotland)

The Baden Powell Guild of Gt. Britain

The Central Group

UKASAAGM- 6th May 2006

This years AGM was hosted by the Baden Powell Guild of Great Britain, and organised by their Malvern Branch. It was a very successful day, with all who took part expressing their satisfaction. A full report is available on our web site & in the BP Guild Magazine, if anyone would like a printed copy please contact:

Allan Page on 01886 8/32940 or allan.page@talk21.com.

Central Group

Members of the Central Group took the opportunity of getting together to hold a meeting on the morning of the AGM. 12 members were present and 19 members sent apologies. They were welcomed by Beryl Aldridge, as Central Group Co-ordinator, who informed them that there were now 58 members in the Central Group. A ballot was held to elect 3 members from the 5 nominations received to serve on the ASA committee, Beryl Aldridge, Brian Staines & Dave Mowbray were elected. Members agreed they would be prepared to host the ASA 2007 AGM. Members expressed the wish that they could get together more often as a group & this will be looked into. For more information contact Beryl Aldridge on 01903 761764 or beryl.aldridge@ntlworld.com

NATIONAL COMMITTEE

The national committee is now made up of ‘up to 3’ nominated members from each of the component organisations plus co-opted persons. At the AGM nominations were received from: The Baden Powell Guild of Gt. Britain & The Central Group subsequently The B-P Scout Guild (Scotland) nominated one member, so at present the committee comprises 7 members.

St George's Guild, Denmark

A group of members of the St George's Guild of Denmark will be visiting the UK in May 2007 with the possibility that they meet up with members of the UKASA.

Global Team Meeting

An invitation to you

Members of the UK ASA are warmly invited to join with the Members of the Central Group who form part of the International Scout Fellowship of the Scout Association UK, at the Henry Ford Centre, Loughborough University on Sat. 14 October 2006.

This is a unique opportunity to meet those who promote international work, particularly through the National Scout Fellowships (Networks), in many countries around the world.

!! HELP !!

we need some information

We need ideas for content, and particularly details and highlights of the way in which members and their groups work to achieve the Objectives of the International Fellowship.

WORLD GAZETTE

We have received the first edition of the Gazette for 2006 a little late due to 'technical problems'.

I always say, "technology is wonderful-when it works!"

The second edition is due shortly, there will be 4 editions this year. It will also be available for downloading from the internet – will you still be interested in purchasing copies when this happens ??– please let the International Secretary know.
